

Screenshot of project:

1. Home page – The homepage of the "Laboure Help Portal" welcomes users with an intuitive interface, facilitating seamless navigation [services, about , registration] for both employers and skilled laborers.

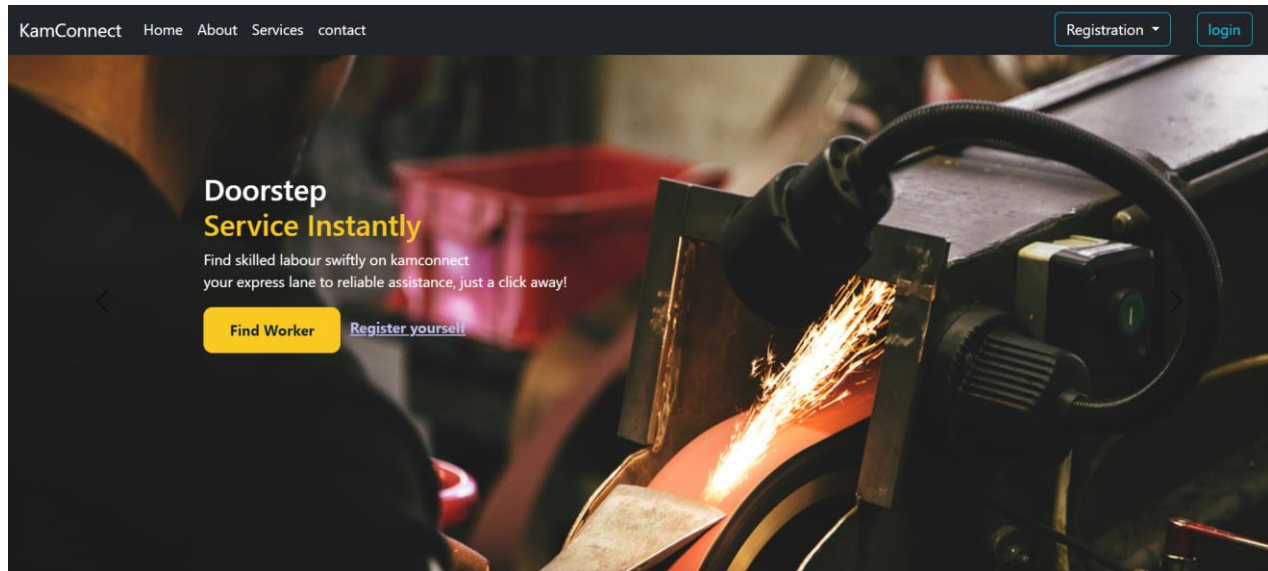

Fig :5.1 Home page

2. Services: In service section you can choose the service as you want and book the worker.

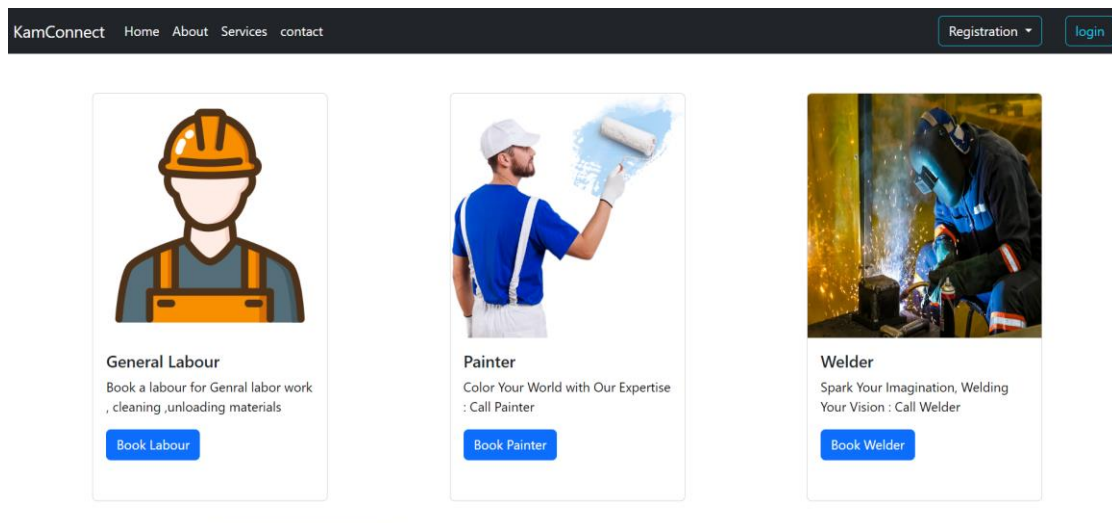

Fig 5.2: Services page

3 About – In about section you can contact with developer and designer and also know about the company's owner. In about section you will know, what is the purpose of portal creation.

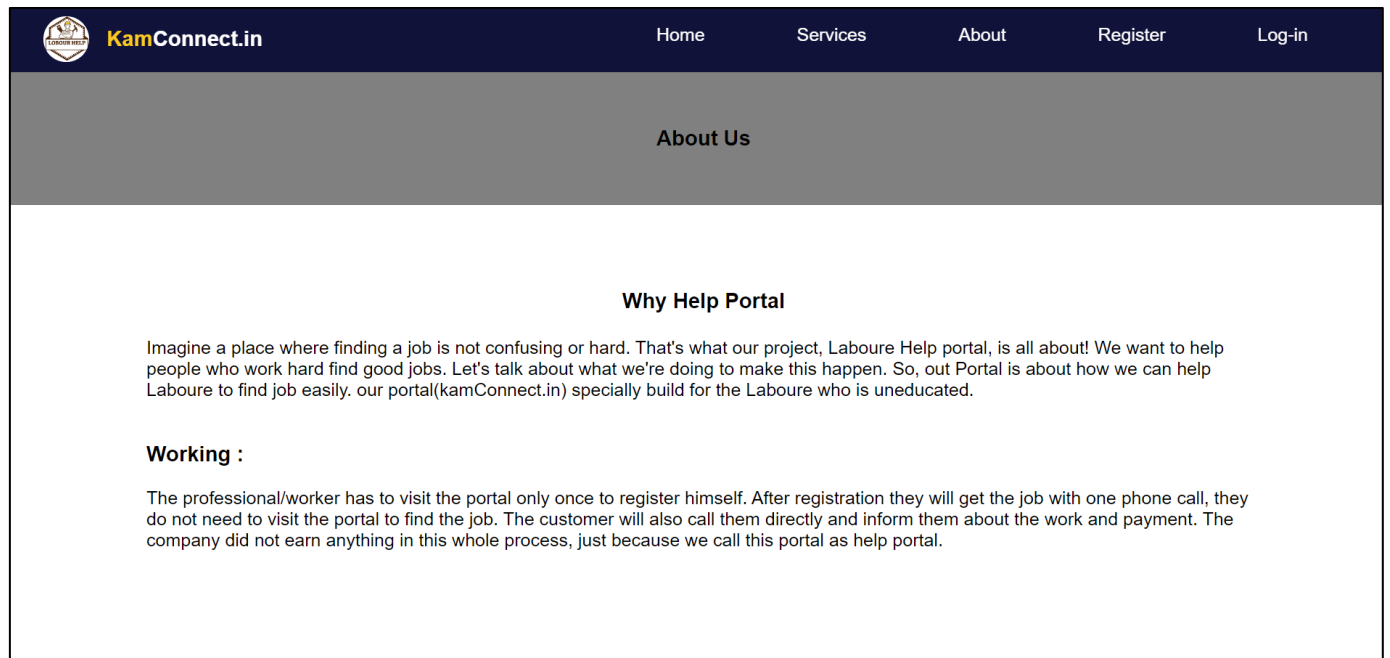

Fig 5.3: About Page

4. Register and login page –In the register page first you must select the user type then you can register yourself after filling the details as per the user type. The registration page captures essential user details, including name, email, and password and contact, ensuring a secure and personalized experience on the platform. Providing accurate information enables efficient account management and access to tailored services. After completing the registration, you can login with your email and password.

Registration login

As User
As Professional
As Contractor

Register as a user

Name:*
Enter your name

Email:*
Enter your email

contact:*
Enter your contact

password:*
create a password

submit

Login Here

Email :
Password

Close Login

password.*
create a password

Fig 5.4: Login & Register Page